A horse attached to a light wagon ran away yesterday afternoon and caused considerable damage. The animal was attached to a wagon and was in charge of John O'Brien, who was at 118 15th street southeast. When near the intersection of 1st and B streets the animal became frightened and started off at a rapid gait. After crossing the square the animal ran into a car at Delaware avenue and B street, breaking the rear of the car seats, damaging the wagon and injuring the driver. The horse was slightly injured.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

Complaint was made to the police last night that the glass in the show case in front of the store of I. Newman, 822 7th street northwest, had been broken. It is reported that a white boy about fifteen years of age was seen to break the glass.

Mary Hill, colored, a resident of State alley, called at the first precinct police station last night about 9 o'clock to see a policeman for her purpose of making a complaint. Just as she entered the office she was seized with a fit. The police took her to the Emergency Hospital for treatment, and she soon recovered and was able to go home.

A young man named George Dowden, whose home is at 29 K street northwest, became ill this morning at the St. James Hostel, where he is employed. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital and given treatment.

A lace curtain caught in contact with a lighted gas jet caused a slight blaze in the house of Mrs. A. M. Beall, 1312 Park road, this morning about 8 o'clock. No 6 truck company went to the house in response to the alarm and the blaze was quickly extinguished after about $25 damage had been caused.

lieutenant in the 1st Michigan Cavalry. The funeral was held at Hampton, as requested by him.

Daughters of 1812.
The first monthly meeting of the season for the United States Daughters of 1812 was held in the Elbow House Monday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Kate Kearney Harty, in the chair. Each officer of the chapter and many members were present.
After the business routine Miss Goddard gave an account of the 1812 "markers," which had been placed at patriots' graves in the cemetery of the District since the spring meeting, and money was voted the chairman of that committee to continue the work.

Miss Webster read of a lady in northern New York, whose father was a prominent officer in the two wars for independence.
She is now in her ninety-third year, and from reverses of fortune is in needy circumstances. A substantial gift was sent to her. It was stated that the lady's chaplain Mrs. Potts suggested more social life to these meetings, which met with approval, and as the season advances many gatherings are expected.

ITS SECOND SESSION

ASSOCIATION OF RAILWAY SIG-NALMEN AT NEW WILLARD.

The sessions of the second day of the Railway Signal Association in tenth annual convention began this morning at 10 o'clock at the New Willard hotel, with more than 300 members in attendance. It was stated that about 700 members are in the city.

The meeting this morning was presided over by C. H. Morrison, the president of the association, who is signal engineer of the Erie railroad, with headquarters at New York city. The first business to be taken up were the reports on rubber-covered wire, signal lamps, interlocking and block signals and how to remedy the effects of foreign currents on automatic block signals. The question of doing away with flagging rule where automatic signals are in service was also discussed at length.
Shortly after 1 o'clock the convention adjourning for luncheon, and at 2:30 the members were received by President Roosevelt at the Executive Mansion.

After the reception the members returned to the New Willard, where the sessions of the convention were resumed shortly after 3 o'clock, when there was discussion of the following subjects: Circuits for au-

DECIDE TO ACT.

Automobilists Will Retaliate Against Glen Echo.
For the purpose of testing the legal rights of the town marshal, C. P. Collins, of Glen Echo in stopping drivers of automobiles along the Conduit road and demanding collateral of them, automobilists of this city are organizing to fight the matter in the courts. M. A. Winter, St. Louis, was stopped on the road that runs through Glen Echo, with others, has employed Attorneys Leckie, Fulton & Cox to look after the legal end of the matter, and this firm has taken steps to test the right of the town marshal and the validity of law under which he claims he is arresting automobiles.

The charge is made that the town marshal in certain instances has drawn a resulting from the town marshal, charging violation of the law in flourishing the revolver and threatening law-abiding citizens.

Promotion of John P. Dugan.
An official circular has just been issued by Mr. D. B. Marmon, chief of the railroad traffic of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, announcing the appointment of Mr. John P. Dugan as general baggage agent, with headquarters at Baltimore, filling the vacancy created by the recent death of Mr.
B. E. Peddick. Mr. Dugan was a longtime baggage agent, and this position has been abolished.

August started in the service of the Baltimore and Ohio as a mail messenger when only fourteen years old, and filled various positions in the railroad's post office and mail service for many years.
He was promoted to the position of assistant postmaster, and in February, 1901, he was appointed postmaster. In September, 1902, he was promoted to the position of chief of mail service, and in March, 1903, he was appointed traveling baggage agent. Mr. Dugan was born at Chesterton, Ind., county, Md., and is twenty-six years old.

THE THEATER.

"Madame Butterfly." at the Columbia Theater last night, introduced a new set of principals.

Miss Vivienne won her audience by her fresh young voice and her pleasing personality. She was enthusiastically applauded in all her principal scenes. Mr. McEllan was all that could be desired in the part of the American consul, and his singing and acting were of a high order of merit. and Mr. Goff, always a reliable and competent actor, gave to the part of Sharpless a dignity and repose that was decidedly attractive, while his rich and powerful baritone voice was heard with pleasure. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Louise Janssen, the Danish prima donna, will make her debut as Madame Butterfly, supported by the same male cast.
Miss Vivienne is an American girl from Duluth who was studying under Victor Maurel. She was preparing for her debut in the part of the American consul, and in Milan, who had her sing Madame Butterfly in La Scala before an audience composed of Signor and Signora Ricciardi. They were both so well pleased that they mentioned her in warm terms to Mr. Savage, who engaged her at once. Her work last night demonstrated the wisdom of the selection.

Before and After.

Leo Ditrachstein is famed not only as an author, but as an artistic exponent of high-class farce. Each successful play from his pen has been pronounced better than the last. He himself considers "Before and After," the laughter vehicle which he is using this season, vastly better than anything he has ever done before, excelling even "Are You a Mason?"

W. C. M. Concerts.

The first of the concerts of the Washington College of Music concert series will take place at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, 23d street, on Friday afternoon next, at 4:30 o'clock, when the program will be given by Mr. Edgar Priest, the new organist and choirmaster of the church, who this year became a member of the faculty of the Washington College of Music. Mr. Priest is a graduate of the Royal Manchester College of Music, England, and pupil of Dr. Pyne, organist of Manchester Cathedral, Dr. Dearnaley and Albert Hudson of England.

Mr. Priest's program will include compositions by Gullistan, by Bach, Lemaire, Rehnerberger, Dvorak and Vincent.

Tickets of admission for this concert can be secured at the Metropolitan Hotel, 10 street northwest. There are still some seats left for the entire series, and this sale will remain open until the appearance of Mrs. Eddy at the National Theater, on November 15.

"The Virginian."

The cast for the fourth season of "The Virginian" includes Dustin Farnum as the hero, Frank Campeau in his remarkable character portrayal of Trampas, Miss Mabel Wright as Molly Wooten, and John Stevenson as Steve. An entirely new production will be given. "The Virginian" will be the next attraction at the Columbia Theater for the week commencing Monday, October 22.
The production will be given with the usual Thursday and Saturday matinees.

"The Burglar's Daughter."

"The Burglar's Daughter," a new modern play by Owen Davis, is the attraction booked at the Academy for the week commencing Monday night. The story is a full of thrilling situations and sensational excitements. Beautiful scenery shows New York harbor, and the rescue of the blind girl from the hero's peril, to fast running trolley car.

At the Lyceum next week the attraction will be Williams' Imperia! Burlesques. The Imperials will present two up-to-date burlesques with beautiful costumes and scenic scenery. In the vaudeville portion of the entertainment will be found a number of well-known acts.

Majestic Theater.

"The Black Crook," the old-time spectacle, has been revived this season and will be the attraction at the Majestic theater, commencing Monday with a matinee.
"The Black Crook" was first produced in 1866, forty years ago, and with brief intervals has been before the public ever since.
The present management has made a new production of the spectacle, musical numbers and feature vaudeville acts taking the place of the pantomime.

The Vanderbilt Cup.

"The Vanderbilt Cup," in which Elsie Janis is starring, deals with the automobile races of the country, and particularly with the race for the Vanderbilt cup at Mineola, L. I. Around the auto craze ad love affairs, business deals and social intercourse are made to center, and the story is a full old story of love is not told in "the same old way." Barney Oldfield and Eddie Bald will appear during each performance in real costume. These drivers are well known in Washington.

"The Phays," comprising Mme. Gertrude, Charles Herbert and M. Grant, in their novelty "phantasmagoria," an expose of the stage, will be the attraction at the Elbow House, commencing Monday with a matinee.
Other features will be Col. Gaston Borden-berry, "The King of Firearms;" Gillett's musical dogs and baboons; Joseph and Bertha Adelmann, performers on the xylophone; Maxine, Nevada story; full of comedic down beats; Paul La Croix, the comedian with the hats, and "Pala" by the motion picture.

Excursions.
Decidedly the most interesting side trip visitors may make out of this city is the sail to Old Point Comfort and Norfolk via the swift steamers of the Chesapeake and Washington line, sailing daily at 6:30 p.m.
Much of the country's history was made in the immediate vicinity of Old Point and Norfolk, every foot of this section of the Old Dominion being of more or less interest to every American tourist. The Norfolk and Washington boats have every appointment essential to the comfort and convenience of the traveler, and are noted particularly for the excellence of their crews. They make railroad connections at Norfolk for all points south, and also connect with steamers for New York and Boston by sea.

Until the last of October the Washington Sunset Route excursions to California may be made with great economy, for a special rate one-way ticket will be obtainable up to that time. These excursions are made via tourist sleeping cars without change, but through tickets at Chevy Chase trains via this route also carry high-class Pullman cars, offering luxurious accommodations for those who desire to travel in style, doing away entirely with annoyance from smoke and cinders. Those desiring further information regarding the scope of these trips, or over-railroad connections, etc., may obtain the same at the office of A. J. Poston, general agent, 511 Pennsylvania avenue.

Many suburbanites residing along the metropolitan branch of the B. & O. railroad find it pleasant and convenient to board the trains at Kensington, which is about three miles from the city. The trolleys running from Chevy Chase Lake, the cars running every fifteen minutes from New York avenue and 15th street Washington line, direct connects at Chevy Chase Lake with the cars for Kensington.

Injured by Torpedo Explosion.
While playing with what she supposed to be a new toy, but which was later found to be a railroad torpedo, Viola Tinsley, colored, seven years old, of 2641 I street northwest, was severely injured in the cheek by an explosion yesterday afternoon.

The little girl was sent to the Emergency Hospital through the aid of Policemen Creagh of the third precinct. It was stated there that the wound is very painful but not seriously dangerous.

The child found the torpedo on the street.
It was stated, and was trying to open it, using a hatchet. She struck a torpedo with her strength and it exploded with great force.

DEATH OF MRS. ROWZEE

BURNS RECEIVED LAST SATUR-DAY HAVE FATAL RESULT.

Mrs. Julia W. Rowzee, widow of Charles Rowzee, who was killed in a runaway accident last June, died at Garfield Hospital yesterday afternoon, her death being due to severe burns received while at her home, 3024 15th street, last Saturday night, while Mrs. Rowzee was fire and she was terribly burned before friends and relatives succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.
Six children survive the deceased.

Mr. Rowzee, a contractor, one afternoon about June 1 last was driving near Florida avenue and 11th street, when his horse became frightened and ran away. Near the corner of Florida avenue and 12th street Mr. Rowzee was thrown from the vehicle and severely injured. His death occurred at Garfield Hospital several days later.

Accident at Funeral.

Upon the occasion of the funeral of Mr.
Rowzee his wife and other relatives had an unpleasant experience while returning home from Rock Creek cemetery. Mr. E.
G. Rowzee, a brother, was in the carriage with the widow and two other relatives, and they were thrown to the road when the horses ran away. The brother sustained a fracture of his shoulder and other injuries, but the other members of the funeral party were not injured.

Mrs. Rowzee last Saturday the family physician was summoned, and without delay the patient was admitted to the hospital. Her condition was critical and the surgeons feared that her death was merely a matter of a short time.
Coroner Nevitt was called upon last night to make an inquest into the death of Mrs.
Rowzee. He heard of the circumstances attending the accident, as stated, and approved the attending physician's report.

The remains of Mrs. Rowzee were removed to her late home last night and prepared for interment. The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
